

SHOOT FOR THE SUN

Chorus:

If you have no place to go - you'll never get somewhere
You might be moving slow - but at least yur moving over there

If you seek out my advise - as strange as it may seem
Whether a virtue or a vise - you got to keep a crazy dream

And whatever time it takes - to get your hands out of your pockets and for all the time it takes - you gotta do more than just talk it

You gotta strap on to a rocket - and don't get off too soon
Ya gotta shoot for the sun - just to get the moon

V1:

I could have climbed to the tallest mountain
Then scratched my head whether I should have climbed it

I could have charted an ocean vessel then found that I'd taken the plunge before bording the ship

All these things that you could be doing
And still you might wonder if this life is your're very own

If all is so confusing to you
There's no secret that needs to be known

Chorus:

If you seek out my advise - as strange as it may seem
Whether a virtue or a vise - you got to keep a crazy dream

And whatever time it takes - to get your hands out of your pockets
and for all the time it takes - you gotta do more than just talk it

You gotta strap on to a rocket - and don't get off too soon
Ya gotta shoot for the sun - just to get the moon

V2:

Why do some people persist
In letting there dreams gather dust in a messy basement

And how easy is it to resist the thiongs that yhou know you should do for your own betterment

And now is never too late
To do a little something hyou've always wanted to do

Let me tell you real straight the negative reasons are really too few

Chorus:

If you seek out my advise - as strange as it may seem
Whether a virtue or a vise - you got to keep a crazy dream

And whatever time it takes - to get your hands out of your pockets
and for all the time it takes - you gotta do more than just talk it

You gotta strap on to a rocket - and don't get off too soon
Ya gotta shoot for the sun - just to get the moon

And if you seem like you are stuck
In a life that's off its rails forget about bad luck

There is a way that you won't fail

V3:

How many mistakes must you make before you realize a mistake can always be changed

Twenty years is by far too late
For the effects of indision to be rearranged

Now and again maybe you should try
To step uo or step out or do anything just don'e step aside

Regrets are the only thing that will die
My opinion is a hard thing to hide

Bridge:

If you seek out my advise - as strange as it may seem
Whether a virtue or a vise - you got to keep a crazy dream

And whatever time it takes - to get your hands out of your pockets
and for all the time it takes - you gotta do more than just talk it

Chorus:

You gotta strap on to a rocket - and don't get off too soon
Ya gotta shoot for the sun - just to get the moon
