

LIFE

V1

Life is like a bucket of frowns
But every once in a while you get one upside down
If you're inclined to complain and whine it might be your fault
For ever finding a diamond in a box of salt

Life is what you make of it
Some people build some monuments some dig themselves pits
Some people's situations are trouble and strife
Up and down and up and down through their whole life

Chorus 1

L. is for loving and laughing and loss
L. is for my intellect that gathers no moss
(Ya know that)
F. is for fun and fights and bumping all night
E. is for the everything that makes up my life

V2

Sometimes life will bring out a smile
And other times it comes to you in a smelly dog pile
A too full plate might be your fate if you're not careful
To make a balance of change and challenge and all that's fearful

I am right or maybe I am wrong
But I'm inclined to always decline to follow along
Some people like to dance on the edge of a knife
Some people like me want to live a long life

Chorus 1

V3

Left or right or down the middle
How to find some peace of mind's the greatest riddle
The trick it seems is always be keen on one or two things
Never be shy of all the surprise that your life brings
Life is like a brand new big book
Well I invite you to use your site and have a long look
Of the story of angst and glory demise and delight
A fool and a sage page after page titled my life

Chorus 1

Chorus 2

L. is for love of my friends and family
I. is for the infants I've held so tightly
(ya know that)
F. is for the feelings between a husband and wife
E. is for the every one that makes up my life

Chorus 3

L. is for the legacy I leave behind
I. is for the insights that I've gathered over time
(ya know that)
F. is for my funeral long out of sight (knock on wood)
I. is for the exit at the end of my life
